NEW YORK.

The Case of Pratt, The Texas Rioter—Conflict Between the Federal and State Courts—Fire on Broadway—Collision at Fulton Ferry—The Express Robbery—Vincent Collyer, Indian Commissioner.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 12,—The case of Jno. Pratt, the Texan rioter, was set for examination before Commissioner Osborne to-day, but Marshal Barlow declined to produce the prisoner at present, as he had been served with an order from Judge McCunn, of the Superior Court, of New York, to release him, and as he had not force enough at his command to hold him as against the directions of the State Court. At the motion of the Assistant District Attorney the case was postponed till next Monday. Meanwhile Judge McCunn had prepared warrants for the arrest of Marshal Barlow and Major Taylor, commander of Fort Schuyler, where Pratt is confined on an affidavit by one Noble that he believed the Marshal was about to take Pratt out of the State. Before they were served, however, a compromise was effected, the Assistant District Attorney agreeing that Pratt should be produced in the Superior Court at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon. It is understood Commissioner Osborn took no part in this stipulation, as he holds the prisoner is still under his jurisdiction and the State Court cannot interfere. Report says the commander of Fort Schuyler has been instructed by the Secretary of War to hold the prisoner.

A fire occurred this afternoon at 38 Broadway, occupied by Van Beal & Fiske, wholesale liquor dealers, and several other firms. Van Beal & Fiske lose $15,000; fully insured. Dorr & Gillespie, Merrick, Peck & Co., and Geo. T. Moore & Co., merchants, lose in the aggregate $8,000. The building was owned by Edward Mathews and damaged $3,000.

The Chinese visitors to-day visited various places of interest, including Central Park.

It is said to be impossible to tell yet the amount the robbers got from the express on the New York Central Railroad. It is known, however, that $20,000 in gold was taken. There is no clue to the robbers. Two arrests have been made at Schenectady, but the parties readily proved an alibi.

Vincent Collyer has received a commission from the Secretary of the Interior, and leaves to-day to visit the Indians of Alaska.

It is stated 95 cents on the dollar has been refused for the protest indebtedness of Rhodacanachi & Franghaide, who recently failed. It is believed they will pay in full with interest.

The following dispatch has been received from St. Johns, New Foundland, by Messrs. Knerhardt & Co., agents of the Hamburg American Packet Company: "Divers are at work on the wreck of the steamship Germania in Trepassey Bay. Some specie and nine bags of mail have been recovered and brought here."

POLITICAL.

A Story Denied—Excitement in Tennessee Subsided.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, August 12.—There is no truth or foundation for the story, telegraphed specially from this place, that Mr. Boselle, one of the editors of the late Stokes organ, had received a letter warning him to leave. The truth is the editors of the organ won the respect of this entire community by their conduct as journalists and citizens.

The excitement of the late political canvass has completely subsided. Tennessee is as quiet to day as at any time in her history and her people in the best of humor. They have gone to work full of hope for the future, with no idea of circumscribing the rights of any man of any race or color.

Declines the Speakership.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 12.—Hon. Emerson Etheridge, in a letter to the Avalanche, positively declines to allow his name to go before the State Senate as a candidate for the Speakership of that body.

The Campaign in Ohio Opened.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 12.—The Republicans opened the campaign in southern Ohio, at Wilmington, Clinton county, to-day. Senator Morton, of Indiana, and Gov. Hayes spoke. Ten thousand people, at a moderate estimate, were present.

Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton has not entirely recovered from his accident, being thrown from a buggy, laming him, three months ago. He can walk but a short distance, but goes about in a buggy. The Democrats have a meeting on Saturday night to ratify his nomination.

Mississippi Officials Removed.

JACKSON, August 12.—Judge Jefferds, of the Supreme Court, A. Warner, Secretary of State, Judge Speed, of the Criminal Court of Warner county, with large numbers of minor officers, were to-day removed by Gen. Ames. The persons above named are prominent in the Conservative movement in this State.

ST. LOUIS.

National Capital Convention—Change of Time—Steamer Sunk.

ST. LOUIS, August 12.—The Committee appointed the other night to arrange the preliminaries for holding a National Capital Convention in this city, met to-day and changed the time from October 6th to October 20th. A Committee on Transportion was also appointed, embracing prominent gentlemen connected with all the railroads and steamboat lines centering here, who will endeavor to procure free passage for delegates and half fare for visitors to the Convention.

The steamer Cora, a Missouri river packet, sunk about six o'clock to-night at Bellfontaine Bend. No particulars, but no lives lost.

CUBAN REVOLUTION.

Active Preparations—Points on the Coast Held by Cubans—Anxiety for Belligerent Rights—Inspiriting Success of Gen. Jordan's Forces.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Cuban advices to the 2d instant state that active preparations have been commenced by Generals Jordan and Quesada. Several points on the coast are now in possession of the Cubans, with power to hold them against any land force that can be brought against them, from which points they have communication with their friends in the United States. The Cuban leaders state that were their rights as belligerents recognized by the United States, such would be its effect in Cuba that in less than thirty days they would have entire possession of the Island outside of Havana, and that entire possession would only be a question of a few months time. Cubans throughout the Island are in sympathy with Cespedes' Government, and the disaffection of the Spanish troops would leave the Spanish Government without an army to oppose the Cuban armies. It is reported that there is a serious difficulty in the volunteer organization and numbers in the interior are joining the revolutionists with arms and munitions of war.

A force of four hundred men were sent out from St. Jago de Cuba, commanded by Col. Puello. This force was captured by Gen. Jordan's troops. A force sent out by Gen. Valmazeda to reinforce them were in turn attacked and defeated with a loss of half their number.

It is reported that the Spaniards have been driven out of Cinco Villas district with severe loss in killed, wounded and desertions. The Cubans are successful in every engagement and are now in possession of the entire territory, the wealthiest and most productive on the Island. This increases their strength and affords facilities for active operations, giving them full supplies for their army. The Spanish troops are represented to be in such a demoralized condition as to be almost beyond the control of their officers, who are fearful to trust them in an engagement. Everywhere in General Jordan's Department he has so far accomplished his purposes. His troops are inspirited by their successes, and he has no doubt of ultimate triumph.

A cargo of slaves landed in Cinco Villas District were all captured and at once liberated by their captors. Their condition is represented as wretched in the extreme.

Gen. Quesada's forces are closing on their opponents, who have no troops outside of Nuevitas, except those in Puerto Principe.

THE TURF.

Races at Buffalo Driving Park—The Horse Show at Williamsport.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, August 12.—Fully thirty thousand people were in attendance to-day at the Buffalo Driving Park to witness the trots. The race for horses that have never beaten 2:29, which was unfinished yesterday, was resumed to-day, with eight horses entered, and was won by J. Demass ch. m. Idol. Time 2:28¾, 2:32 2:37, 2:27½, 2:24½, 2:26¾, 2:28¾.

The trot for the one thousand dollar purse was won by Goldsmith Maid in three straight heats. She made the closest and best time ever made in three successive heats. Goldsmith Maid, American Girl and George Palmer started and kept nearly even to the quarter pole on the home stretch. They all lapped to within fifty feet of the stand, when the Maid shot ahead and won. The Maid broke at starting in the last heat and lost the pole, keeping outside the entire round. The following is the summary:

Goldsmith Maid	1	1	1
American Girl	3	2	2
Geo. Palmer	2	3	3

Time, 2:19¾, 2:19½, 2:19¾.

Lucy was entered but drawn. The fastest time ever before made in three heats was by Lady Thorn in 7:02.

Two heats were trotted in the race for horses that never beat 2:50, and were won by Henry in 2:32¾ and 2:29¾. The race will be concluded to-morrow.

Two heats also trotted for $5,000 and the race left open until to morrow. One heat was taken by Voorhes in 2:23¾, and the other by Lamplighter in 2:22.

Thomas Best, the trainer of Henry, to-day sold that horse to Mr. Roden for $14,000, sale subject to the approval of D. H. Ball, owner. The rumor of the sale of Goldsmith Maid for $30,000 to Senator Sprague is untrue. Her owner says that no such money will buy her. The rumored sale of Idol to three New York gentlemen is also unfounded.

The manager of the National Horse Fair at Williamsport has postponed the exhibition from September next to the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of October, 1869. All the leading horses will be in attendance at Williamsport. Premiums of $25,000 are offered.

THE RAILROAD WAR.

Gov. Hoffman's Superintendent Takes Charge of the Susquehanna & Albany Road.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., August 12.—General McQuade, Governor Hoffman's Superintendent of the Albany & Susquehanna Railroad, arrived this afternoon and took possession of the road. On his way from Harpersville to the tunnel, seven miles, General McQuade found it necessary to ride in a carriage, the rails having been taken up or the position altered during the controversy. The military have been withdrawn and are now here. The war is quiet, but it is impossible to open the road for travel under two or three days.

ALBANY, August 12.—Gen. McQuade, who is Acting Superintendent of the Susquehanna Railroad by appointment of Gov. Hoffman, went over the road to-day and telegraphs that he found several trestle bridges badly damaged and much other damage done to the road. It will, he says, probably take till to-morrow night to repair the road and bridges, but trains will be running regularly on Saturday morning.

Gov. Hoffman to-day issued an executive order appointing Robert L. Banks, of his staff, executive and financial agent of the road, and continuing Gen. McQuade as Superintendent.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, August 12.—The Times to-day has an editorial on the relations between Great Britain and the United States, suggested by the Queen's closing speech. The writer says: "The Queen's opening and closing speeches are apparently inconsistent, but the explanation is found in the fact that the international relations depend on the reciprocity of the feelings of the people and not on the negotiations of their Ministers. Messrs. Johnson, Stanley and Seward have been succeeded by others, but the sureties of peace and friendship abide on a stronger basis than diplomacy can furnish."

DUBLIN, August 12.—At the meeting of the Committee of the Irish Church Conference letters were received from the Archbishops of Armagh and Dublin announcing that the Bishops who were present at the late assembly consider it inexpedient to re-assemble the Conference, as that course is distasteful to a large body of churchmen. The question must come; it may be delayed by concession or hastened to a decision by continued obstruction, but until a reform is accomplished elective and hereditary Peers will meet in suspicion and not often part in harmony."

LONDON, August 12.—Advices from Odessa report that the quantity of wheat to be harvested is large, but a decided opinion as to its quality cannot be given until the result of recent rains is known.

The troops shoot all individuals suspected of Carlistism without any kind of trial. Nine persons have been summarily shot in the vicinity of Barcelona, which has created a very bad impression among the people.

It is reported that Gen. Prim intends offering the crown of Spain to King Louis, of Portugal, in which case Spain and Portugal would be governed in a similar manner as Austria and Hungary, and the King would divide his residence between the two capitals.

A Carlist chief, Cobecilla Estarus, has crossed the French frontier and passed into Catalonia, where he has joined a band 400 strong.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Times publishes a letter from Madrid whereof the following is an extract: Spain cannot be in a worse state. A change must come, unless the rulers are prepared for revolution. CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Little Boy Killed.

We mentioned yesterday that a little boy had been killed the evening previous on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, near the Superior blast furnace. Yesterday morning Alderman Irvin, of Allegheny, acting for the Coroner, held an inquest on the remains at the residence of his parents, at Woods Run. It appears that the little fellow, named Thomas Vaughen, had been sent out by his mother with a can of milk which he had to leave to customers in the neighborhood, and nothing more was heard of him until his mangled body was brought home. The body was found lying across the track by an employe of the Superior works, who supposed it at first to be that of a drunken man, but closer inspection revealed the mistake. The wheels passed across the upper part of the breast, near the neck, and severed, besides breaking the arms, and otherwise horribly mutilating it. The deceased was about thirteen years of age. The accident accurred in McClure township, just outside the city limits, at a point where a township road crosses the railroad track. No person was a witness, but it is supposed to have been done by a shifting freight train which passed along a short time before the body was discovered. The jury returned a verdict that the deceased "Thomas Vaughen came to his death in McClure township on the 11th day of August, 1869, by being accidentally run over by a train on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad. And the jury recommend in order to guard against similar occurrences at the same place, that a watchman be placed there by the railroad company."

Brakeman Killed.

Yesterday morning, about four o'clock, John Rogers, a resident of Allegheny and brakeman on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, was killed. He was coming toward the city on a train, which jumped the track a mile this side of Allegheny Junction, twenty-eight miles from Pittsburgh. Several of the cars were thrown down a steep embankment, and Rogers falling underneath one of them was crushed to death. The deceased had been injured on the road about three weeks before, and had only recovered sufficient to start on the trip which ended his life.

The accident was caused by a misplaced switch. The damage to the train was trifling.

PETROLEUM.

The Production and Development in the Pennsylvania Oil Regions During the Month of July.

The Titusville Herald of yesterday contains the monthly report of petroleum affairs for July, from which we make the following extracts:

The production during the month under review, as shown by the difference between the stocks held in the region on July 1st and August 1st and the shipments meantime, was 11,697 barrels of forty-three gallons, or an increase over the product during June, as shown by a revised report for that month, of about 400 barrels.

There was a considerable increase on Cherrytree and Upper Cherry runs, along the Allegheny river, and on the flats in the vicinity of Oil City. There was also something of an increase in the vicinity of Oil City. There was also something of an increase in the vicinity of Bean farm, on the Smith farm and the Curtin tract, Lower Cherry run, and on West Hickory creek.

The following table shows the production during July, the average per day, the production previously reported in 1869, and the average per day since January 1st; the product from January 1st to August 1st last year, and the average per day for the same time:

	BBLS.
Total shipment of crude for July of bbls. of 45 gals. each	353,281
Add to reduce to bbls. of 43 gallons. each	16,436
Total shipment of bbls. of 43 gallons each	369,717
Stock on hand July 1st	314 245
Stock on hand August 1st	307 136
Deduct decrease on August 1st	7,110
Total production during July	362 607
Average per day for 31 days	11,696
Production from January 1st to July 1st.	1 893,381
Total production since January 1st	2,255,988
Average per day for 232 days	10,641
Total production same time last year	2,021,206
Average per day same time last year, (213 days)	9,489
Average per day during June last year	10 698

With the exception of a falling off in the product of the farms in the Bull Run district, there appears to have been no decrease of consequence. In the Pleasantville district there was a slight decrease. The product as obtained from the difference between stocks at the beginning and close, and the shipments during the month averaged about 1,200 barrels daily.

Under continued large shipments, the stock of oil in the region underwent a further decrease during July, and on August 1st the total was 370,138 barrels of forty-three gallons. During the second two weeks of the month the shipment was light, and the stock accumulated rapidly, but during the last week the shipments by all routes were greatly enlarged.

In the stock on August 1st there were included the amounts in iron tankage and at the wells, and those on the hands of refiners, dealers and pipe companies in wooden storage tanks. These last amounts aggregated 12,460 barrels, and were located as follows: At Titusville 2,000 barrels, at Miller 1,500, at Pithole 1,000, at Tidioute 1,000, at Petroleum Centre 1,450, on Cherry Tree Run 2,000, and on the Rynd Farm 1,500.

Three hundred and ten wells were going down on the first of August.

The shipment of Crude equivalent during July reached a little over 353,000 barrels, of forty-five gallons each, or a daily average of 11,4000 barrels.

The number of wells in process of drilling increased slightly during July, and on August first the total number 310, an increase of five. Besides the above there were about sixty leases on which operations had been commenced with a view to sink wells.

The scarcity of territory in the vicinity of producing wells is now the leading feature connected with the development. At Parker's Landing on the Allegheny river, on Upper Cherry run, on two of the farms on Lowers Cherry run and on West Hickory creek, a few leases in good localities are now being offered, but the number is not equal to the demand.

There were very few fluctuations of importance in prices on the Creek during July, and for the greater part of the time the market was quiet but firm. At the beginning of the month quotations were given at $5 35@5 45 at Miller and Titusville, and at $5 65 on the Lower Creek. There were variations of ten to twenty cents from these figures, but at the close the prices of the early part of the month were paid.

Aquatic.

Conlter has signified his intention to accept Hamill's last challenge, and a meeting of their friends to arrange the preliminaries will be held on Saturday evening next at the Labelle Saloon.

Mr. Samuel Shore proposes to stake from $100 to $1,000, against an equal sum, that Hamill cannot pull four miles—two and a half miles to stake boat, turn it and return to starting point—in thirty-eight minutes. If this proposition is accepted, he asks to have the course measured by competent engineers, and gives Hamill the choice of the course, whether it be the upper or lower Monongahela, or the Allegheny, matters not to him.

Thirty-eight minutes is rather rapid time to bet on, and we presume the challenge will hardly receive any attention.

A Smash Up.

A buggy belonging to Mr. Dickey, of Brookville, Jefferson county, was completely demolished yesterday by a locomotive on the Fort Wayne Railroad. The buggy, with a horse attached to it, and occupied by Mr. D., was standing on Penn street, near the railroad crossing, about two o'clock yesterday, waiting for an approaching train to pass, when the horse took fright and, turning suddenly, ran in between the track and the wall on the east side of the street, just in time for the engine to catch the buggy, which was crushed into a thousand pieces. Mr. D. escaped without injury by jumping out. The horse was but slightly injured.

Family Quarrel.

Yesterday, a Justice of the Peace appeared before Mayor Brush and made infoomation against his son for felonious assault and battery. The twain had a row in relation to some ill treatment of the mother of the family by the father, when the young man, it is stated, drew a revolver and threatened to "finish off" his natural paternal parent. On this charge he was arrested and required to give bail for court. Immediately, in turn, he made information for assault and battery against his father, who also gave bail for trial.

Where the Master needs thee,
Be thou led
Let the world's sharp censure
Harmless fall;
Boldly, forward venture
Through it all
With the gayest smiling,
Sing and dance,
Keenest eyes beguiling
With thy glance
Friends may watch thee gravely
Lest thou stray;
Heed them not, but bravely
Make thy way.
The cross thou daily bearest
Comes from Heaven;
And the mask thou wearest,
God hath given.
As thy God hath bidden,
Do thy task;
Holy aims are hidden
'Neath thy mask.
Let thine own heart cheer thee,
Wounded! Grieved!
For a few are near thee,
Not deceived;
Some who read thee better,
And who mourn,
As they mark thy letter
And thy thorn;
Who thy cup are sharing
Tempted—tried;
And the same mask wearing,
Walk beside.
Not for aye the trial
Weighs thee down;
After self-denial
Comes the crown
Wait a little longer
Through the night,
Then stand purer—stronger,
In the light.

PENNSYLVANIA.

BURGLARS have been ransacking Tyrone.

THERE is small pox at Harrisonville, Centre county.

THERE are fifty slate quarries in active operation in Lehigh and Northampton counties.

IN SOME parts of Lebanon county the peach trees are breaking down with the weight of fruit.

ERIE has an Academy of Music said, by the Dispatch, to be one of the prettiest halls in the State.

TYRONE wants water works. It will cost but $12,000 to secure a fine supply of water, and the Tyronians have raised thus far $8,000.

SOME local burglars entered the house of a Mrs. Gorman, at Conemaugh, last Monday, and stole eatables, drinkables, wearables and jewelry.

MISS CLARA LLOYD, daughter of W. M. Lloyd, of Altoona, received a compound fracture of her left leg, caused by jumping from a carriage, the horses being fractious, Tuesday of last week.

THE Bedford county ghosts are creating a tremendous sensation in that neighborhood and form a pleasant addition to the pleasures and excitements of the guests at the Springs. As an attraction, a family of real ghosts like this ought to be equal to the sea serpent.

MRS. MARION DARRAGH, wife of Capt. Jas. Darragh, living in Sharon, Beaver county, rose from her bed while asleep, last week, and, walking to the window, fell out, a distance of fourteen feet, breaking her arm and leg and dislocating her elbow, besides several other severe injuries, from which she died on Sunday, the 8th inst.

ON Saturday last a son of Samuel Winters, Lower Windsor township, York county, aged about fourteen years, whilst driving the horses from pasture to the barn, received a kick in the stomach from a colt, causing a serious rupture. The unfortunate lad lingered in dreadful pain for a few days, when death relieved him of his suffering.

MR. WILLIAM FRY, of Derry township, Westmoreland county, some ten or twelve days since, had the point of one of his fingers taken off by a mowing machine. The wound caused considerable suffering from inflamation, and eventuated in lock-jaw, from which he died on Thursday last. He was a young man some 25 years of age and unmarried.

JOHNSON'S powder mill, located in Spring Garden township, about two miles south of York, exploded on Saturday evening last between six and seven o'clock. The wooden ceiling in the drying house caught fire from the heated stove pipe, which passed through it, and this communicating with the powder caused the disaster. The building was completely demolished, but no one about the establishment was injured. The report of the explosion was heard in York. The powder factory also had its roof torn off, and was otherwise injured by the concussion.—York Republican.

THE Tioga county Agitator says: "Mr. F. M. Spencer writes us from Mansfield concerning the horrible fate of Rudolph Pool, who was instantly killed at Bailey's Mills in that village, on the 29th ultimo. Mr. Pool was a German Jew, but lately arrived in this country. While assisting in taking the lumber from the saw, one of the proprietors saw that Pool was about to pass a scantling over the saw and endeavored to stop him. Unfortunately it was too late. The saw, a large circular, caught the scantling and drew the poor fellow down upon it, and in a second of time literally tore him in shreds. Both arms and the head were not only cut off but reduced to minute shreds.

THE Beaver Argus says: A few weeks ago Miss Elizabeth Keyser, a young lady aged about eighteen years, residing in New Sewickley township, Beaver county, while attempting to draw some water from a well near the house, lost her balance and went head foremost to the bottom. The distance was forty-five feet. Help being near at hand, a ladder was lowered down the well, when she ascended about half way, when she again slipped and went to the bottom of the well. After righting herself once more, she made a loop with a rope let down to her for the purpose, fastened herself to the ladder and was then hauled up to terra firma. Strange to say, she was almost entirely unhurt by her series of mishaps.

THE Greensburg Herald says: On Saturday evening last, while several young men in Armburst's store, at Weaver's old stand, were engaged in trading and bantering to trade watches, pistols, &c., Mr. William Holtzer asked Mr. L. L. Armburst to show him his revolver, as he was going west and might trade for it. The revolver was brought, and was examined around; finally William Hays picked it up and without thinking whether it was loaded or not snapped it, when it was discharged, the ball striking William Holtzer in the breast, who staggered and threw his hands upon his breast. On examination it was found the ball had struck a metal vest button, which, though much bent prevented the ball from entering, though it bruised and drew blood from his breast. But for striking the button it might have killed him.

WEST VIRGINIA.

THE recent assessment of real estate in the city of Wheeling, footed up a total valuation of $6,076,230. The population of Wheeling is estimated at upwards of 18,000, all told.

THERE are 76 inmates in the W. Va. Penitentiary, among whom is a lad about 13 years of age, who was sentenced there for five years for taking the life of his father, some years since.

MORGANSTOWN is to have a grand series of races, begining on the 13th and ending on the 15th of October. Horses are to trot and run; mules ditto, and there are also to be foot and velocipede races.

The Preston county Journal says: On Thursday last a boy living with Mr. John Potter, named Charles Bishop, was bitten on the face by Mr. Potter's large dog, lacerating his cheek in a frightful manner. Dr. J. H. Manown attended to his wounds, and the boy is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. They treated the dog to a dose of lead, and is now harmless.

A SAD and melancholy accident took place at Hornbook's mill, on the 24th ult., by which a workman in the mill, named Thomas Hall lost his life. He was engaged in fixing a belt upon a drum in the building, and by some mishap was caught between it and the fly-wheel. One leg was totally served from his body, it being picked up in another part of the room, and the lower part of his person was crushed and bruised in a terrible manner. He lived about two hours after the accident, the mind being uninjured and reason continued until death.—Moundsville National.

Lay a Fainting Person Down.

Says a physician in the Hearth and Home:

It is surprising how eagerly everybody rushes at a fainting person and strives to raise him up, and especially to keep the head erect. There must be an instinctive apprehension that if a person seized with a fainting or other fit fall into the recumbent position, death is more imminent. I must have driven a mile to-day while a lady, fainting, was held upright. I found her pulseless, white and apparently dying, and I believe if I had delayed ten minutes longer she would really have died. I laid her head down on a lower level than her body, and immediately color returned to her lips and cheeks, and she became conscious. To the excited group of friends I said: "Always remember this fact—namely: fainting is caused by a want of blood in the brain; the heart ceases to act with sufficient force to send the usual amount of blood to the brain, and hence the person loses consciousness because the function of the brain ceases. Restore the blood to the brain, and instantly the person recovers. Now, though the blood is propelled to all parts of the body by the action of the heart, yet it is still under the influence of the laws of gravitation. In the erect position the blood ascends to the head against gravitation, and the supply to the brain is diminished, as compared with the recumbent position, the heart's pulsation being equal. If, then, you place a person in a sitting position whose heart has nearly ceased to beat, his brain will fail to receive the blood, while if you lay him down, with the head lower than the heart, blood will run into the brain by the mere force of gravity; and in fainting, in sufficient quantity to restore consciousness. Indeed, nature teaches us how to manage fainting persons, for they always fall, and frequently are at once restored by the recumbent position into which they are thrown.

Pious Dead Beats.

The persistency, not to say "cheek," of some charitable solicitors is astonishing. A sanctimonious looking person made his appearance at the residence of a clergyman, near Hartford, Ct., and stated the object of his visit, which was to secure funds in aid of a Western college. After some conversation, the agent said: "What I want is this, that you will direct me to people of wealth who are in the last stages of consumption, or are hereditarily disposed to apoplexy. I find this class of persons are more easily reached than those who possess means and are in the possession of perfect health. In one western town I found a gentleman who had received two apoplectic strokes, and he put our college in his will for $15,000, and a lady consumptively inclined gave us $10,000. Neither is dead yet, but you see the importance of getting such people on the right side." The clergyman, after listening to this "argument," said that the members of his church were, so far as he knew, in the enjoyment of good health, and it would be impossible to select any who gave promise of early death. The agent, upon looking about the town further, ascertained that the general health of the community was too good for speculation with death, and decided to leave at once for some other locality.

Butter.

A singular method of making butter has lately come into quite extensive use in France, based upon the observed fact, that cream is changed into butter by being simply buried in the earth. The theory of this result is not very intelligible, though the fact is stated to be beyond question; and in Normandy and other parts of France, butter is actually prepared on a large scale in this way. The process consists in placing the cream in a linen bag of moderate thickness, which is carefully closed; then burying the bag about a foot and a half deep in the earth, and allowing it to remain from twenty-four to twenty-five hours. After the expiration of this period the cream is found to have become hard, and it is then broken up by means of a wooden beater into small pieces, and enough water poured upon it to wash out the buttermilk. To prevent any mixture of earth, it is advisable to enclose the bag in a second one of larger size and coarser quality. This method of making butter saves a great deal of labor, and separates the butter more perfectly than the ordinary process, and we are assured that the butter thus prepared is of most excellent quality.

THERE is a great convocation of Northern and Southern politicians just now at the Virginia White Sulphur Springs. Rumor has it that some remarkable event, rivalling the famous Rosecrans conference of last summer, is on the tapis. What this can be is at present carefully withheld; but it has been insinuated that it will have for its object the passage by Congress; at an early day, of an additional amendment to the Constitution, declaring general amnesty for all past offenses to those engaged in the late rebellion.

A French Monk on Protestantism and Judaism.

Pater Hyacinthe, one of the most eloquent of modern preachers, is reported to have said in a discourse delivered on the 24th of June at Paris, before the Ligue permanente et internationale de la Paix, where also the Chief Rabbi of France, M. Isidore, was present, the following remarkable words:

"There are three religions which govern the world, and which are equal before God—the Jewish religion, and the Catholic religion and the Protestant religion." The enthusiasm of the audience manifested itself by thundering applause. The voice of a young man was heard saying, "This is blasphemy; a monk dare not speak so." The audience again applauded the Catholic Pater. This incident causes La Reforme to cite the sentence of the Talmudists, "'Hasside oumoth Haolam yesh lahem 'helk laolam habba." which translated means the righteous of all nations will share the eternal beatitude of the world to come. The Figaro, copying from La Reforme, adds: "This only confirms what a great many people have known long ago—that Judaism, excepting some local and merely traditional ceremonies, is one of the most rational religious systems which humanity has ever known."

SWIMMING baths on the Thames have recently been advocated by the London Times, and the construction of floats, such as are to be seen along the quay sides on the Seine at Paris, have been projected. Another London journal proposes the erection of an iron building, one thousand feet square, covered with glass, with a tank, lined with white tiles, and having a depth of water varying gradually from four feet to fourteen, and renewed constantly from a running stream. It is asserted that such an establishment would be frequented for bathing purposes during the six months of the year, and in the winter could be converted into a skating rink. The cost of admission, however, would be high, and is placed at half-a-crown, or 62 cents in gold, for a single bath. The supply of pure water is also another difficulty to be surmounted, and it is asserted that before such a swimming bath could be established a river or lake must be brought into London by aqueducts, capable of furnishing fifty million gallons a day, On the other hand it is suggested that a bath of the dimensions given could be constructed on the flat land by the Thames side, below the point where the river begins to be contaminated by the sewerage.

VISITORS to London, says the London News, have been rather astonished by our Baby Show; but what shall we say to an annual fair for marriageable young girls? Such a show took place on the 11th and 12th of last month, and is of immemorial custom among the Roumanians. As the time for the fair approaches, the fathers whose children are marriagable collect what they can afford as a dowry. Whatever this consists of, it is packed, if possible into a cart or carriage, and on the appointed day they all—fathers, children and chattels—start for some trysting place, generally chosen among the western mountains of Transylvania. When the fair is opened the fathers climb to the top of their carriages and shout with the whole power of their lungs, "I have a daughter to marry. Who wants a wife?" The call is answered by some other parent who has a son he is anxious to pair off. The two parents compare notes, and if the marriage portion is satisfactory the treaty is then and there concluded. The young man takes possession of his wife, with all her goods and chattels, and drives off merrily. If, on the other hand, the match is not equal, or for some other reason unsatisfactory, then the parents begin to cry their live merchandise once more.

OLIVE LOGAN tells of a terrible child at Long Branch: "When the dessert comes he has cast aside the bill of fare, having eaten it 'all the way down;' and here it is that his appetite shows itself at its most wonderful. He has a large slice of two or three kinds of pie, some pudding, some blanc mange, some trifle, two dishes of ice-cream, a plate of cakes, and nuts and raisins. Ye gods! He munches and munches—like the sailor's wife in 'Macbeth,' who had chestnuts in her lap. When he positively can eat no more he rises. Heavens! how many pounds has he gained since dinner? 'More nuts!' he gasps out, with eyes starting from their sockets. Mamma pats him on the head, smiles at the assembled diners, who despise him for a little beast, as who should say, 'Isn't he a darling?' and leads him triumphantly out.

THE first gentleman at Long Branch is a waiter at the Stetson House, and he carries his head as though it was supported by a military stock. He has the air of a clergyman, which is heightened by his immaculate black swallow-tail coat and white tie. He comes up to your table at dinner, and you mildly insinuate to him that if it would not be too much trouble, you would like to have him bring you some soup. He then pours you out a glass of water, as much as to say, "I understand you perfectly. Drink my health." This gentleman is open to gratuities, and the way in which he pockets a fifty-cent note would call forth the admiration of Chesterfield. He knows just when to bow and scrape, and he is particularly gracious to those people who wear enormous diamond pins and rings.

MARK TWAIN gives a melange of Boston reminiscences in the Alta California, in which, among other things, he says:—"And the Bostonians show you the ancient Capitol and Quincy Market, and the residence of old John Hancock, the gentleman whose signature to the Declaration of independence it is comfort to come back to and read, after you have got the blind staggers trying to spell out the others. And they also show you old Faneuil Hall, the Cradle of Liberty. You must learn to pronounce Quincy as if it were Quinzy, and Faneuil as if it were Funnel. In this way you palm yourself on the unsuspecting for a native, and so be respected."

THE Saginaw Enterprise has the following item: "Four boys in Saginaw City conceived the idea of utilizing the kite to answer the purposes of a mule or draft horse. A small four wheeled delivery cart was pressed into service, in which they packed themselves. Then the engineer of the scheme let up his kite, a very large one, holding the string in both hands, and the tongue of the cart between his legs for steering purposes. A good steady breeze kept the cart moving, and in this novel manner the kite, cart, and cargo, proceeded down Washington street, to the great glee of the passengers and astonishment of the spectators.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL
private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, boils, weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelope. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while to others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who has failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 12, 1869.

Business generally, is quiet, though fair for the season, and some branches of trade are showing signs of improvement. Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, August 12.—Trade is improving; prices generally well maintained for all cotton and woolen fabrics of staple makes, yet we find here and there occasionally some shading on rates of certain classes of goods, which, however, would be no criterion of the market. However, it shows the feeling is less bouyant on cotton goods than a few weeks since, but nevertheless there is every reason to believe that fall trade; though late will be heavy. Prints hang fire and the indications are that most of the popular makes will have to be shaded before there is any active demand. Woolen shawls and hosiery of low grades are in good request, and woolens for men's wear beginning to move more freely. Bags in better request, which is a good sign that harvest throughout the country will be bountiful.

—A Louisville telegram says: The work of damming the falls of the Ohio, is about to commence, the water being low enough. The contractors began to deliver lumber at the head of the canal, for that purpose to-day.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday says: The Belle Vernon was expected to arrive about 10 o'clock, last night. As she has a barge, an effort was made to induce Captain Darragh to load her immediately for Few Orleans.

—The Louisville Courier-Journal, of Tuesday says: On Friday Verhoeff & Bro., of this city, sold one half of the steamer Peytona and barges to Captain Green B. Taylor, for $15,000. Captain Wes. —A letter from Capt. Rezin Bell, dated at Camp Cook, July 23d, confirms the reported destruction of the Peter Balen. The letter says in substance: "While one of the hands was washing the bedding and clothes of the officers in the laundry, and the crew were engaged in sparring the boat, they received the alarm, and before the any thing could be done to stop the flames the whole boat was on fire. The officers and crew had not time to save any thing but what was on them, and the provisions and every thing else were destroyed, and they are now on their way to St. Louis."

—Capt. W. H. Baker is having a small boat built at Freedom of very light draught for Bayon Bartholomew to carry cotton. She is to be built of seasoned timber, and when finished will not draw over eight inches. The length on deck will be one hundred and ten feet; fifteen feet beam, and her power will be one boiler sixteen feet long, thirty-six inches in diameter, one cylinder eight inches in diamater and twenty-two inch stroke, and will be placed in the after part of the boat, leaving all forward for storage of cotton. PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 53¼f.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 88⅜.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 134⅜.

THE consolidation of all the corporations interested in the Lake Shore railway line, from Buffalo to Chicago, was finally completed in stockholders' meetings, at Buffalo and Cleveland on the 10th.

THE Democratic State Committee of Ohio did not venture to trust the important matter of nominating a successor to Rosecrans on their ticket to any Convention. They preferred to take the responsibility. Their candidate has but once before appeared in any similar capacity before his fellow-citizens: in 1864 he was on the Presidential ticket, as Vice to MCCLELLAN, and was so tremendously popular that he came within 59,587 votes of carrying the State. That was Pendleton and Pacification. They are now to have Pendleton and Repudiation with a fair prospect of making that minority figure a plump sixty thousand against him.

THE Southern people are comparatively rich again. Two cotton crops, the first of which was a fair one and the second still better, and both sold at nominally remunerative prices, have brought back at least a good average of wealth to that section of the Union. With restored ability, the Southern people ought now to be ready to pay the three millions yet due as their unpaid proportion of the direct land tax of twenty millions of dollars which the exigencies of the war required. The Southern share then was six millions, of which about one-half had been collected and paid into the Federal Treasury, when Congress, in view of the pecuniary distress of those populations at that time, suspended the further collection. This period of suspension has now expired, and the law is properly once more in force, while the reasons which justified the suspension are fortunately no longer operative. If the Secretary of the Treasury needs fresh instructions from Congress, for proceeding to realize the delinquent balance, these should be given at the next session. Perhaps, this question will present a good opening for our Democratic politicians to trot out their cherished projects of repudiation; the relief of rebeldom will supply them with tempting inducements to make their issue.

GOV. SENTER, of Tennessee, was formally received by the citizens of Nashville, on Tuesday evening, whom he addressed at considerable length. He had not one word to say for Republicanism, or for that Chicago platform upon which he had everywhere solicited Republican votes, but he was eloquent in his denunciations of "proscriptive radicalism," and in his invitation to his hearers to join a new party "which would discard dead issues and act up to the living present." Faithfully translated out of the Tennessee tongue, this means that the new Governor does not propose to be hampered by any Republican obligations; that "the progressive ideas which have carried this election with a rush" are to be further illustrated in the coming State Convention which shall complete the colored disfranchisement, and that friends of the XVth Article may as well forever dismiss their last slender reliance upon his anticipated co-operation in securing its ratification by the new Legislature.

Fortunately, the Administration comprehends the lesson taught by these results in Tennessee and Virginia, and will pronounce itself in hearty accord with a truer Republicanism in the States yet to be reconstructed. There, it is to be hoped that we shall have no local treacheries to lament, and no reactionary triumphs for disloyalty.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

Throughout Schuylkill county and a large part of Carbon the miners are at work, what is termed "the basis" having been assented to by the individual operators without exception. Indeed, many of the Luzerne county miners have gone into those counties, and are fully employed.

As to the supply of coal, there is no probability that it will fall below the demand. As much has been sent forward as up to the corresponding period last year, and, allowing that the Luzerne companies will not resume business during the residue of the current season, the aggregate quantity put on the market this year must greatly exceed last year's total.

The combination has certainly succeeded. Prices have been sent up, and the advance is likely to be maintained. The gain is divided among four parties. 1. The miners, who get increased compensation. 2. The individual operators, who find their margin of profit enlarged. 3. The transportation companies, which put up tolls in accordance with the established rule, that freights shall be low when coal is low, and high when coal is high. 4. The middle-men, who made contracts with the great corporations, early in the year, when rates were low. The loss falls upon three classes. 1. The consumers, who are forced to pay the augmented prices. 2. The great corporations, which are not only making nothing, but are compelled to go into the market and buy large masses of coal at the advanced terms to fill contracts entered into last January and February. 3. The outside laborers, railroad men, boatmen, machinists, dock hands and the like, who are thrown out of work, without recourse to any association for help; and these number several times more than the miners.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, and the Pennsylvania Coal Company—included under the general designation of New York Companies—still refuse to accept "the basis," and declare they will not accede to it in any event. Their objection is not to giving the miners, as wages, one fifth of all the coal shall sell for at tide-water, but to consenting that the miners shall strike whenever coal shall there fall below five dollars a ton. Their reasons may be briefly stated. Each of these companies is now in condition to supply about three millions of tons a year. It is impossible to pile, in, or near New York a third of the aggregate. Hence it is indispensible for the companies to make contracts at the commencement of the year, covering by far the largest part of their products, and to deliver as rapidly as it can be transported. For several successive years the miners have struck early each summer, sending up wages, as well as coal, and thus entailing serious losses on the companies. This year these companies are heavy losers from this cause, though not one of the New York journals seems to comprehend their case or to take any pains to be correctly informed. It is manifest that the companies cannot accept "the basis" without being constantly in peril; and hence their interests, so far as this point goes, is identical with those of the consumers of coal in general.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company and the Pennsylvania Coal Company transport exclusively by rail, or nearly so, the latter Company retaining only a few boats on the Delaware and Hudson Canal. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western has a railroad of its own, the eastern section thereof running from Scranton to just below Easton, where it connects with the New Jersey Central; its western section running from Scranton to Great Bend, where it intersects the Erie Railway; thence it has trackage on the Erie to Binghamton and Owego. At Binghamton it reaches the Chenango Canal, which intersects the Erie Canal at Utica; also, the Binghamton and Syracuse Railroad, of which it has a perpetual lease. At Owego it connects with the road to Ithaca, which it owns, and thus reaches the head of Cuyuga Lake, having access that way to Central New York.

The Pennsylvania Coal Company has a line of railroad, starting at Pittston, at the confluence of the Lackawanna with the Susquehanna, (a short distance above Wilkesbarre,) whence it runs across the Moosic Mountains into Wayne county, touching the Delaware and Hudson Canal at Hawley, ten miles below Honesdale, in the valley of the Lackawaxen. It has the right to use halt the lockage on that canal, but finds it better to go by rail, on a branch of the Erie railroad, which connects with the main line at the junction of the Lackawaxen with the Delaware. From thence its coal goes on the main line to Greycourt, and thence, by the branch to Piermont on the Hudson. The Coal Company, however, is not content to stop there, and is promoting the construction of a new road from Piermont, on the right bank of the Hudson, down to Jersey city.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company has a railroad extending from Scranton or below it, over to Honesdale, where it strikes the head of the Company's canal, running thence to Rondout on the Hudson river. This Company has access to New York by an extension of the branch of the Erie from Hawley up to Honesdale. These facilities, however, give it no western outlet. Hence, it is now engaged in constructing a railroad from Carbondale, in Luzerne county, directly up the Lackawanna creek, to join the Erie at or near Lanesboro. This line will be completed next year, and leased to the Erie. From Lanesboro this road will be extended up the Susquehanna to Nineveh, which is the point where the Albany and Binghamton road leaves the valley of the Susquehanna, in order to avoid coming into Pennsylvania, crosses the divide between the Susquehanna and the Chenango, and follows the latter stream to Binghamton. By this route the Delaware and Hudson Company will be able to put coal on the Chenango canal, for Utica and Syracuse, some miles above Binghamton, and thus compete with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western in all the markets of Central New York.

At or near Waterville, on this line, a branch will be opened this fall to Richfield Springs, which will be good news to all seekers after health or pleasure who desire to visit that renowned watering place.

But it will have other facilities. From Utica a railroad already penetrates the Chenango valley. The cars are now running regularly to Sherborne, and in a month Norwich will be reached, which is midway between Utica and Binghamton. It is thought the latter place will be reached within a year.

Nor is this all. The Midland Railway starts at Oswego, on Lake Ontario, crosses the New York Central at Oneida, a few miles east of Syracuse, the Utica and Norwich road at or near Norwich, and the Albany and Susquehana road at Sidney Plains. When this line shall be completed, as it will be very soon, the Delaware and Hudson company will have easy and unimpeded access to central New York, and to Canada, by way of the port of Oswego.

Having said so much of the Midland Railway, we had better say more. We traced it from Oswego to Sidney Plains. From thence its line runs through Delaware and Ulster counties to the Hudson, and thence down to Jersey City, perhaps using the line from Piermont to Jersey City, to which reference has already been made. It will be seen, therefore, that this Midland road must become an important line of travel and transportation. It may, also, be mentioned that from the point where it will strike the Hudson, a line will be extended up to Schenectady, on the Mohawk, so that each bank of the Hudson will have a line of road.

This rehearsal shows that the main supply of coal for Central New York has been obtained by way of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad. As the case now stands much has to be carried over longer lines and at much higher rates than heretofore. In consequence a very strong feeling prevails through all that region in favor of the repeal of the duty on foreign coal, and nothing less than this will satisfy the adherents of either political party. The Free Traders evidently mean to take advantage of the popular discontent in regard to coal, not only in Central New York, but elsewhere, to deliver a heavy blow at the whole policy of Protection.

HUMBOLDT.

At this time, when the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of probably the greatest savant whom the world has ever produced is approaching, and when, throughout the earth, preparations are being made to celebrate becomingly that memorable event, it will be well to refresh the minds of the many who have allowed their memories to become dusty, by giving a few facts in regard to the great name which is now so especially prominent.

That FRIEDRICH HEINRICH ALEXANDER, Baron VON HUMBOLDT, was born September 14th, 1769, every body now knows, and there are but few who can not remember the universal sorrow which pervaded the civilized world when, in May, 1859, full of years and honored almost beyond all precedent, the great philosopher, statesman and sage passed into another world. No man has ever contributed so much towards so many branches of science, and no man ever more steadfastly devoted so great a proportion of so long a life to the interests of science and of his fellow men. To recount merely the names of his various journeys, explorations, discoveries and writings, would require more space than we have at our disposal; we shall therefore refer only to such of his labors as more especially bear upon America.

On July 16th, 1799, Humboldt first set foot upon American soil, landing then at Cumana, in Venezuela; from thence he penetrated to the wildest of the primeval forests, scaled the most difficult of mountains, climbing 18,096 feet up the side of Chimborazo. He explored Venezuela, Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador, wandered through Mexico and Cuba, and finally, after spending five years in this way, returned to Europe by way of the United States—where, at Washington he was the honored guest of President Jefferson—laden down with a richer store of collections and observations pertaining to statistics, geography, ethnography and all the departments of natural science, than had been obtained by all the previous travellers in those parts of the world. As Americans, we naturally must feel grateful for explorations which successfully depicted and described so large a portion of our continent, even though it be in the distant tropics.

Beside this, however, Humboldt contributed several valuable works on mining and upon the cultivation of the soil, the influence of which is very perceptible in our own state. And some of the most valuable facts we possess concerning the deadly fire-damp of the coal mines, were first discovered by him through a course of perilous experiments, which he made, armed with a respirator and a lamp, in the depths of the Saxon mines.

For universality of knowledge and ability to impart it, for impartial devotion to philanthropy and science in their most comprehensive forms, for grandeur of ideas and success in carrying them out, HUMBOLDT has had few, if any, equals and probably no other man, excepting FRANKLIN and WASHINGTON, could so appropriately or so heartily be remembered and honored by the natives of every land, who combine to form the American people.

THE LATEST RAILWAY MARVEL.

The latest Railway war—that for the control of the line recently opened between Albany and Binghamton—will bear a few words of explanation and comment.

This line was projected many years, and the managers have had an uncommonly hard time in procuring means to complete it. A large part of the funds was raised by the municipalities through which the line was laid binding themselves in proportion to their wealth. A few months ago, when the road was opened for business, the stock of the Company could have been bought for twenty-five cents on the dollar, and was regarded by such as claimed to be initiated into all the facts as absolutely worthless. During the last few days this stock has suddenly gone to par and above. Most of the municipalities have sold out so as to save the pockets of tax-payers, and retain all the advantages of the road. In one instance a Judge so far forgot his duties as to grant an injunction restraining the delivery of stock held by one village, entirely on the ground that it was sold below par.

What has caused this sudden appreciation of the market value of this stock? The discovery that it constitutes a link in the directest line between Boston and the West, thus far opened. Hence, the New York Central folk wish to manage it so as to have it remain a local road, while the Erie people wish to elevate it to the rank of a trunk line. Each of these parties is willing to pay, and can afford to pay, for the accomplishment of its wishes.

So far, the facts in this case. Now, comment.

Geography has all along indicated what this Susquehanna route was to New England, and especially to Boston. It was the line taken ordinarily by the early immigrants from New England to the West. Railway kings had only to look at a map, to be made aware of its importance as related to the general railway system of the country. They did not look. They had no forecast at all. They waited, just as ordinary mortals do, until the case became so palpable, through practical demonstration, that they could not resist it; and then they paid eighty per cent. more for the stock than they could have obtained it for ninety days before.

This is only another illustration of the fact that men become reputedly great, through connection with important enterprises, when they have no greatness in them, but are as dull of apprehension as the dullest of their neighbors. Half, at least, of the vaster enterprises in the country are in the hands of just such men.

THE OBLIGATIONS OF LAW IN VIRGINIA.

We are informed, by the New York Times, that "the Republican press is almost unanimous against Gen. Canby's proposal to exact the iron-clad oath from the members-elect of the Virginia Legislature." This will be news to intelligent observers of Republican journalism, and will require all the editorial ability, for which the Times has been credited of late, to convince the public of the accuracy of an assertion which does not accord with the fact, as patent to ninety-nine one-hundredths of the people. With very few exceptions, if we read our very large Republican exchange-list correctly, the press concurs in sustaining, not only the wisdom of Gen. Canby's proposition, viewing it in the abstract, and independently of the requirements of existing legislation, but in conceding another fact which the Times notably ignores—the imperative obligations which that legislation does impose upon that officer. His requirement of the oath in question is simply in accord with legal provisions which neither he, nor the Federal Executive, have either the inclination or the privilege to disregard.

Whether upon the point of law, or upon that of an official discretion which the Times seems to regard as outside of or above the reach of existing statutes, the country has reason to know that General CANBY'S proposal has the entire approbation of the Administration. Nor otherwise, would this Order, against which our very strikingly Republican cotemporary at New York thus complacently arrays the journals of the party, have been supplemented, as it has been, by another order, issued within the week past, applying the same conditions to the tenure of certain other local offices in the same State. Does the Times regard that as a proof that Gen. GRANT'S "liberality" is about to overturn the acts of his subordinate, or of the sagacious accuracy of the position which it assigns to "an almost unanimous Republican press?"

The Times would have exhibited discretion by withholding this imprudent expression of its dislike for a radical policy which simply executes the laws in Virginia. In a day or two more, it would have learned, what every one now knows, that the President sustains CANBY in every particular, and that it is one of the peculiar friends of the Times, Mr. R. T. DANIELS, the chairman of what is pleasantly styled the "Walker Republican Committee," who has sent a circular to the members-elect, advising them to disregard the action of the military commander. The Times is clearly entitled to its own opinions, but its "facts" seem peculiarly liable to correction, and we do not care to see the Republican party held responsible for either.

Lost and Found.

Francis Riley, a farmer from the east, on his way to Illinois, arrived in this city yesterday morning and stopped at Hares' Hotel, where he deposited the sum of forty dollars, and signified his intention to stay over night. He then went out into the city to see the sights, and from circumstances which transpired afterward he had evidently viewed them through the bottom of a tumbler or beer glass. After wandering around the city for some time he lost his reckoning and finally "brought up" at the Franklin House, on Penn street, where he demanded his money, stating that he had left a deposit of fifty dollars there a few hours previous. The landlord of course had no knowledge of any such transaction and so informed Mr. Riley, who at once became boisterous and his loud talk attracted a crowd in the bar-room, among whom was a policeman. Mr. Riley was taken in charge and as he appeared so positive about having left the money at the Franklin House or some other in that vicinity, the officer visited another house with him, where Mr. Riley insisted he had left his money, but the landlord as in the former instance denied the allegation. The officer then conducted Mr. Riley to the Mayor's office, when he was required to pay a fine of five dollars and costs, for disorderly conduct. He paid the money without grumbling, and insisted that he had deposited fifty dollars at some hotel in the city, but could not tell where. After becoming somewhat sober and recovering his senses, he returned to Hares Hotel, where he found his money and we learn took the next train west.

Arrest of Burglars.

Yesterday morning at four o'clock the attention of a policeman was called to two suspicious looking individuals who were appropriating the contents of a pea nut stand on Fifth avenue. Officers Robert Fowler, William Flinn and Samel Patterson, who were in the neighborhood, made their appearance, when the thieves fled closely pursued by the officers. They ran through an alley to a coffin shop on Virgin alley, and hid themselves away behind some coffins. The officers followed and captured them. They gave their names as John Robinson and John Sprowell. On being searched at the look-up, on the person of Robinson was found a revolver, which was identified by Mr. Kennedy, of Fifth avenue, as one of those stolen from him not long since. This morning the two men, in view of the special issue on hand, and on general principles, were sent to jail for thirty days each. Mr. Kennedy has made information before the Mayor, charging a man named John Crogan with participating in the robbery of his store. The accused was arrested and committed to answer. There can be no doubt but all three were interested in the robbery, and the policemen who made the arrest are deserving of a large measure of credit.

A Champaigne Charlie.

Charles Jennison, a youth of rather good appearance, entered the Fifth Avenue Saloon last evening and while he thought the attention of the bar keepers was directed from him, reached behind the counter and abstracted a bottle of champaigne from the shelf which he put in the pocket of his coat skirt. Charles soon after started to take a walk out of the saloon when the bar keeper thinking the fellow had taken too much champaigne for his moral health followed after him. On discovering he was tracked, Charles rushed with speed through the hall and up Fifth avenue, but was stopped by the police, arrested and lodged in the tombs. The generous and good natured bar tender will hardly make any information against his champaigne thief for larceny, as the night was warm and a saint would have had difficulty in restraining himself from doing what Charles did, especially if in Fifth Avenue Hall, where none but the most tempting of pure beverages are kept.

Man Drowned—Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson yesterday held an inquest on the body of a colored man, who was drowned on Thursday of last week by falling overboard from the steamer "Elisha Bennett," shortly after she left the wharf on her trip to Brownsville. Near Lock No. 1, the colored man was drawing a bucket of water at the stern of the steamer, when he lost his balance and fell overboard. Some women on the river bank saw the accident, but before they could summon aid, the man was drowned. Some children afterwards caught the bucket, and yesterday morning the body of the unfortunate man was recovered near where the drowning took place. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The name of the man was Crawthers, and he formerly resided at Monongahela City.

Strategy.

Daniel Boon yesterday made information before Alderman Donaldson, charging Jerry Sexton with assault and battery. Sexton is bar keeper for Tim Finney, on Wylie street, and it was alleged by the deponent that the accused knocked him down. Sexton was arrested and gave bail for a hearing at two o'clock P. M., and forthwith repaired to the Mayor's office, where he made a charge of disorderly conduct against Boon, who was in turn arrested and after a hearing, fined twenty-five dollars and costs, and in default of payment went to jail for thirty days. When the hour for a hearing arrived Sexton appeared at the Alderman's office, but the prosecutor failed to put in an appearance.

If early resort is had to it.

DR. KEYSER'S BOWEL CUEE is one of the most valuable remedies ever discovered for all diseases incident to this season of the year. Hundreds of sufferers could be relieved in less than a day by a speedy resort to this most valuable medicine, particularly valuable, when the system is apt to become disordered by the two free use of unripe and crude vegetables.

Price 50 Cents. Sold at DR. KEYSER'S GREAT MEDICINE STORE, 167 Liberty St., and by all druggists.

A LIFE-SAVING ARRANGEMENT.

A radical change has been introduced in the practice of medicine. Physicians have ceased to torture and prostrate their patients. Instead of pulling down, they build up; instead of assaulting nature, they assist her. Cupping, leeching, blistering, venesection, calomel, antimony, stupifying narcotics, and rasping purgatives, once the favorite resources of the faculty, are now rarely resorted to even by the most dogmatic members of the profession. The old creed was that disease was something which must be expelled by violent artificial means. Irrespective of the wear and tear of the vital organization in the process. The new creed recognizes the improvement of the general health as essential to the cure of all local ailments. Hence it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most potent vegetable tonic that pharmacy has ever brought to the assistance of nature in her struggles with disease, has been cordially approved by practitioners of the modern school. It is pleasant to reflect that reason and philosophy have at last been victorious over the errors of the past, and that thousands and tens of thousands of human beings are alive and well to-day, who would indubitably be mouldering in their graves had they been subjected to the pains and penalties which were deemed orthodox and indispensable thirty or forty years ago.

Preventive medication was scarcely thought of then; but now it is considered of paramount importance, and the celebrity of the STANDARD INVIGORANT, ALTERATIVE AND RESTORATIVE of the age, a title which HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have fairly earned by their long career of success, is mainly due to its efficiency as a PROTECTIVE PREVENTIVE.

A course of the BITTERS is urgently recommended at this season of the year, as a safe and certain antidote to the malaria which produces intermittent and remittent fevers, diarrhea, dysentery and other maladies.

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fire in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 12, 1869.

The decline in gold had also a depressing influence on bonds. Although the government has taken three millions out of the market, yet the parties who manipulated the late rise sold out yesterday and offered large options.

The market at the close this evening was a little better, but the tendency will be downward so long as the gold market is depressed and quotations from Europe do not improve.

Gold sold down from 135 to 134¾, and still looks weak. The large shipments of breadtuffs, although only in prospect, tell on the gold operators for a rise, and we need not be surprised to see gold quoted, before the close of the year, at or near 120, provided the unfavorable crops reports from Europe are true. On the other hand, should they not be confirmed a sharp rally in gold is unavoidable, even if the eventual tendency would be for lower prices.

Stocks are dull and heavy, with a general decline from one-half to one and one-half per cent. Operators and investors are looking for lower quotations before the next 60 days, as we may expect a tight money market with the opening of the fall business.

Money easy here.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 134¾; Silver, 128; Eighty-one's, 122¼; Five Twenties, 1862, 123¼; do 1864, 122¼; do 1865, 122¼; do 1865, Consols, 120⅝; do 1867. 121; do 1868, 120⅝; Ten Forties, 113¾; New York Central, 209⅞; Erie, 28¼; Reading, 96½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 153½; Ohio & Mississippi, 32; Michigan Southern, 106⅞; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 105½; Chicago & Rock Island, 117½; Chicago & North Western, 89¼; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 98½; Adams Express Company, 59¼; Merchants Union Express, 10; Pacific Mail, 83¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 38½; Am. (By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, August 12, 1869.

Money easy and steady at 6@7 per cent. on call loans, chiefly inside rate. Sterling firm at 9¾@10½. Gold lower, opening at 135¼, declining to 134½, and closing at 134½@134⅝. Carrying rates 4½@7 per cent. Clearances, $71,000,000. Export, $312,000.

Government bonds opened a shade lower and closed active and buoyant this afternoon, with an advance of ⅛ to ⅙ per cent. from the lowest point of this forenoon. The offerings to the Government to-day surprised the street, and some of the principal dealers came into the market as free buyers. The Government bought one million of various issues at 119 73-100@119 90-100. Offerings were only $2,258 800. Coupons of '81, 122¾@123; do. '62, 124@124¼; do. '64, 122⅝@122¾; do. '65, 122⅝@122¾; do. new, 121¼@121⅜; do. '67, 121⅜@121⅝; do. 68, 121¼@121¾; 10-40's, 114½@114¾; Pacifics, 109¾@110.

State bonds dull and heavy; Missouris 87¾; old Tennessees 61½; new do. 73; old Virginias 55½; new do. 60; old North Carolinas 56¼; new do. 49.

Stocks opened heavy, and before noon they had fallen from ½@2 per cent. throughout the list. The principal dealings were in western stocks. Subsequently the market was feverish, but after the second call there was an upward reaction of ⅛ to 1 per cent. on active stocks; North Western, St. Paul, Michigan Southern, Rock Island, New York Central, and Hudson, Dubuque & Sioux City sold at 112@112½, being an advance of 2 per cent. The market continued firm during the afternoon, except Michigan Southern which was weak at the close. The market is quite feverish and unsettled.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CATTLE.

The market thus far this week has been active and strong, and, compared with last week, prices have advanced from a quarter to half a cent per pound. SHEEP.

The market for this class of stock is also considerably better this week, with a fair volume of business in the aggregate, and compared with last week, prices are from a ¼ to ½ higher, particularly for the better grades. Good 80 pound sheep sold at 4¾@5, and 90 pound averages may be quoted at 5¼, and fine wooled 100 pound sheep would probably bring the even 6 cts., but there were none of this particular kind on sale. The sales since the date of our last report foot up some 12,000 head.

HOGS.

Also, firm, with a demand somewhat ahead of the supply, though compared with last week, prices have undergone no quotable change. The sales, since the date of our last report foot up some 8,000 head, at 9½@9¾ for Yorkers; 10 @10¼ for Baltimore hogs, and 10½@10¾ for Philadelphia hogs.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

Colliery Explosions in England.

The London Times, noticing the loss of fifty-eight lives by the latest coal-mine explosion in England, remarks:

"The public ought to be inexpressibly shocked by the frequent occurrence of these fatal catastrophes. To omit minor accidents, in April last we reported the deaths of thirty-three men by an explosion. In May, out of ten men at work in a coal mine in South Wales, seven were killed, and it was mere chance that the number at work was not three hundred or four hundred, with the deaths in proportion. June brought an explosion in the Ferndale Colliery at the cost of fifty three lives, and in July we have this fatal explosion at Haydock. Coals have become the first necessity of life, and it would seem as if colliers were our advance guard in the war with nature, and were perpetually under fire. The parallel may extend, for the fatality of these explosions, it should be remembered, represents only the lives lost in action; the number sacrificed to minor accidents may, perhaps, like the loss of life due to sickness in war, be still larger.

"Strange to say, in this very colliery at Haydock twenty-six lives were sacrificed only last December to an explosion which seems similar in every respect to the present. The two were in the same pit and in the same seam of coal, and in the last report of the Inspectors of Mines we have a plan of the colliery and a discussion of the former accident. From this there seems every reason to believe that the disaster was then due to causes which were completely within control—in fact, to the carelessness of men who paid for their neglect with their lives. The general nature of these catastrophes is sufficiently well known. The gas with which all coal is more or less pervaded escapes as the workings progress, and, unless dispersed by ventilation, gradually accumulates. When a certain amount of it has collected, a slight accident, or one of those blastings which are common incidents of mining, will be sufficient to explode it. It is evident that in order to avoid this danger every part of a mine ought to be constantly watched, in order to be sure that the ventilation is perfect."

The Latest French Revolution.

The change in France from a personal to a constitutional and liberal government involves more than has ordinarily been secured, through a violent revolution. The pledge of the Emperor that he would propose a body of reform measures more comprehensive than even those which were demanded, has been redeemed by the provisions of the Senatus Consultum. Laws may, by the new proposals, be initiated both by the Emperor and the Legislative body. Members of the Cabinet may be members of the Legislature. Both the Senate and the Corps Legislatif are at liberty to regulate the manner and effect of their own proceedings, and the sessions of the former are to be public. The Government may be addressed by both branches, and other points of equal liberality evince the length of the stride taken by the Emperor in the direction of strictly constitutional government. It is a result to excite the world's wonder, as striking as the opening of the war upon Prussia, or the suddenness of the peace at Villafranca. It is a new nation over which Napoleon will thus preside, and this voluntary abdication of power is almost as great a marvel as that of Charles the Fifth when he relinquished everything; only the latter gave way to his successor, while Napoleon yields strictly to the people, or else he pretends so well that the pretence answers as well as the utmost sincerity.—Boston Post.

New Mexico.

It is asserted that the hostility of the Indians has for many months seriously interfered with the prosperity of New Mexico, and that neither the soldiers nor the Friends have as yet come to the relief of the people. The richest gold and silver mines, supplied at great expense with machinery, have been abandoned, thousands of miners, it is asserted, have been thrown out of employment, and the machinery left to be burned and destroyed. In addition to this, no "prospecting" can be carried on, and no new mines can be opened. Parties who venture over five miles away from a fort or large town are captured by the Indians, who, besides kidnapping and killing the people, steal sheep, mules, cattle, horses and all the live stock they can manage to approach. As a consequence of this state of affairs, the miners are leaving the Territory, business is destroyed, and merchants are failing from having lost their customers, and not being able to sell their goods.

A HUNGARIAN journal gives the following extraordinary case of suicide: "Last week John Stebaleski, a shopkeeper, in the Rue Sebastiani, at Pesth, came down from his bed-room at five o'clock in the morning, leaving his wife in bed. He then shaved himself, put on his best clothes, stretched himself on the counter, and having loaded a pistol, discharged the contents into his heart. Death was instantaneous. The horror and astonishment of his wife and the neighbors was indescribable, and the more so that no one knew of any motive for the commission of the desperate act. Whilst all were lost in conjecture, an old friend of the deceased rushed up out of breath. He had just received by post a letter from Stebaleski, dated the previous evening, and thus worded: 'My Dear Friend—I have decided to kill myself to-morrow. Life is unsupportable. I adore my wife, but she has grown so stout—she that was of so ravishing a figure when I married her. Adieu, my friend; tell my wife that I prefer to die rather than prove unfaithful to her, or to separate myself from her by means of the law. Farewell, and pity me.'"

THE tunnel under the Straits of Dover, it is announced, has been reported against by the commission of French and English engineers to whom the subject was referred. The construction of the tunnel through the gray chalk is reported to be feasible, but the cost would amount to $50,000,000, without taking into consideration unforeseen difficulties. It is estimated that twenty thousand passengers a day, at a fare of $1.25, or an annual revenue of $9,125,000 would be required to pay the interest on the sum mentioned. It is not anticipated that so large a passenger traffic could be obtained, and unless the English and French governments would pay part of the expense it would be a hopeless task to attempt to raise the capital required.

Science Perfecting Swimming.

Mr Frederic Barnett, of Paris, has invented and patented a very novel, yet simple apparatus for swimmers. The invention consists in supplying to man by art the apparatus which has been given to the frog by nature. For the hands he has a large membranous fin which is held to its place by loops passing over the fingers and a strap around the wrist. The surface presented to the water by these fins is so large as to add greatly to the effectiveness of the strokes of the arms, but not so large as to exhaust the muscular power. Their effect is to very much reduce the effort required to swim without them. But the greatest ingenuity is displayed in the form and fitness of the fins for the legs, which are attached to the ankles, and are so formed that they act upon the water, both in the movement of bringing the legs together and throwing them back. They act so finely in treading water, as swimmers call it, that one can really walk, if not on the water, at least in it. The difference between swimming with this apparatus and without it, is very much like the difference between rowing a boat with a handle and the blade of an oar.

The old swimmer had no trouble in using the fins at first trial, and is surprised to find with what strength he can swim without exhaustion. He easily swims twice as fast with the apparatus as without it, and he can sustain himself for an hour upon the water, or swim miles with it.

Wooden Toothpicks.

Every eating house visitor of this city and other leading cities of the Union has doubtless noticed a small tumbler of wooden toothpicks upon the counter of the cashier, for the use of customers. These toothpicks are a good feature of the present day. The wooden toothpicks have to a considerable extent superseded the gold, horn, ivory and other articles of the kind formerly in use. Their manufacture is carried on by but one establishment, which has been in operation four years. It is near Boston, and employs thirty hands of both sexes. The machinery has been patented, and is propelled by water power. The woods used are maple and willow. The agency is solely in Boston, and all purchases for use elsewhere must be made there. The toothpicks are packed in pasteboard boxes of two sizes. One box is three inches long. by two wide and one deep. It contains three hundred, and sells for six cents. The other encloses twenty-five hundred, and is five inches long, three wide and three deep. The boxes are packed in wooden cases for shipment, or retailed in the city singly by the carriers. The sales are quite large, and amount at times to forty and fifty cases a day, each containing one hundred thousand toothpicks. The aggregate number sold, therefore, amounts in that period to four or five millions.

THE Drinking Fountain and Cattle-Trough Association of London recently held its tenth annual meeting in that city. The report of the Secretary stated that the income of the association for the past year had been sufficient to maintain the existing fountains and troughs in an efficient condition and to build nine new fountains and thirty new troughs. The revenue for the past year from donations and subscriptions amounted to $16,440. The magnitude of the demand for water for the use of the animals in the streets of London is stated to be almost inconceivable. At one trough 1,200 horses alone, besides oxen, sheep and dogs, frequently drank in one day. The managers therefore decided to erect fountains that would enable all comers to quench their thirst without delay. The association has 123 fountains, and 125 troughs under its charge. This benevolent object has attracted great attention among the wealthy, and donations have been received from the following persons: The Queen, $500; Lady Bentinck, $1;500; and from a friend known only as "A Water Baby," $2,500. A magnificent fountain has already been completed in Hyde Park, at the expense of the Maharajah of Vezianagram, and a gift of $7,000 for the same purpose has been made by an Indian gentleman, Mr. Cowasjee Jehangeer Ready Money, in token of his gratitude to the people of England for the protection enjoyed by him and his Parsee brethren in India.

A DUEL with the most comical results took place a few days ago at Cohoes, New York. Two men met at a hotel and drank and laughed and talked themselves into a quarrel. One was so much larger than the other that the latter did not wish to come to blows, but proposed a duel to settle the differences between them. This was agreed to, and the parties met with seconds and pistols. They were to stand back to back, advance five paces, turn and fire. The programme was faithfully carried out, and the shots were fired simultaneously. But as the lead had been drawn from both pistols by the owner, no one was injured. Just at the moment of firing one of the seconds threw a small pebble at the opponent of his principal. It struck the duellist in the breast, and he supposing that he was mortally wounded, fainted and fell. The other, supposing that he had killed his man, and would be amenable to the laws, dropped his pistol and fled. Soon after the man who thought he was killed recovered, and, seeing nothing of his late antagonist, inquired where he was. On being told that he had killed his rival, and that his body had been buried, he, too, started up and fled in an opposite direction, and neither has since been heard from. Both the men were new comers in the locality, and had already established such reputations that the community is not sorry to lose them.

THE inhabitants of Durrenstein and the neighborhood are living a life of constant dread. Near the castle which tradition points out as the prison of Richard Cœur de Lion, a whole granite cliff has begun to slide downwards, and it is expected from day to day that the vast mass of rock will be precipitated over the road into the Danube. The highway is closed from 8 o'clock in the evening till 6 o'clock in the morning, and during the day every one who wishes to pass is given to understand that he does so at his own risk. Mr. Solch, a well known engineer, is engaged on works which are intended to diminish as much as possible the destructive effects of the catastrophe.

THE Medina Gazette says: The medical fraternity have found a subject for investigation in the case of a male child, born in this village a few days since, who lacks four or five ribs on the right side. The right lung protudes under the arm like a large tumor. Otherwise the child is well formed and healthy.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 245 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

The Allegheny Base Ball Club has reorganized.

Blackberries continue to pour into the city from the mountain districts.

The camp meeting at Monongahela City has commenced and is largely attended.

Next Sunday the corner stone of a new Catholic Church will be laid in Temperanceville.

The Chicago street sweeper will be tested on Wood street at two o'clock this afternoon.

Surety of the Peace.—Catharine McCarty made information before Alderman Koenig, yesterday, against Mrs. Kane for surety of the peace, and against Agnes Moren for disorderly conduct. Warrants were issued.

Nearly seventeen hundred children, boys and girls, of the St. Paul's Catholic sanday school, together with hundreds of parents and friends, enjoyed a splendid day of innocent sport at a picnic held yesterday at Iron City Park.

New Appointments.—David Carroll and Thomas Coffey have been appointed policemen for the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway Company, and commissions have been issued at Harrisburg by the State Department.

Killed.—Milo Vanfasson, a brakeman on the Pan Handle Railroad, was instantly killed Tuesday afternoon, eight miles east of Columbus, by his head coming in contact with a bridge while he was standing on a box car of a freight train, which was in rapid motion.

Committed for Trial.—William Moore and Chas. Baugh, charged with feloniously entering a dwelling house on Penn street, owned by Mr. Frank Jones, had a hearing before the Mayor yesterday, and were committed for trial, in default of $1,000 bail each, for their appearance at Court.

Daylight Bathing.—Half a dozen youths disported in the waters of the Monongahela, near the Suspension Bridge, yesterday afternoon. An hour after half a dozen youths were before Mayor Brush, severely reprimanded and tined for daylight bathing in a public place. The parties in each scene were the same.

The Last Balloon Trip—Thurston, the aeronaut who set out with two passengers in his balloon for New York, was compelled to come down to earth and discharge one of them twenty-eight miles from Meadville. He again went up with his remaining passenger and arrived after seven hours out from Meadville at about nine miles east of Buffalo, New York.

Its Effects.—One of whisky's victims made his appearance at the Mayor's office last night and sought the protection of the officers from the wrath of a legion of men who he said were seeking his life. He was placed in a cell, and if his mania a potu fit has not worked off by this morning, will be removed to a hospital.

Fall from a Wagon.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Zehnder, wife of a butcher having a stand in the Allegheny market, while getting out of a wagon at the Market House tripped and fell with violence to the ground, breaking her right leg below the knee, and otherwise severely bruising her self. She resides in the Seventh Ward, Allegheny, where she was taken, and received medical attendance.

Fatal Accident.—James Bovard, a child about three years of age, whose parents reside on Chislett street, Seventeenth ward, was run over by a cart on Wednesday evening, about five o'clock, and received injuries from which he died in about three hours after. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body yesterday, the jury returning a verdict of accidental death.

Inquest Concluded.—The inquest on the body of R. O. Hadfield, an account of which we published yesterday morning, was concluded yesterday, the jury returning the following verdict: That the deceased, R. O. Hadfield, came to his death on the 10th of August, 1869, from injuries received accidentally on the 5th of August, 1869, at Knap's Fort Pitt Foundry, Ninth ward, Pittsburgh.

"Shovers" About.—Last night a party of three young men attempted to pass a counterfeit twenty dollar greenback at a tavern in the Second ward, Allegheny. Failing in their first attempt, they tried two or three other places with no better success. The police were notified at last and started in pursuit, but after a search of three hours the chase was given up. The last heard of them they had been attempting to operate in Manchester, near the car stables.

Malicious Mischief.—Joel L. Bigham made information, yesterday, before Justice Bratt, of Mount Washington, charging Jerry White, James Graham and Michael Roch, boys about fifteen years of age, with malicious mischief. It is alleged that the accused entered the orchard of the defendent and destroyed fruit and fruit trees. Roch was arrested and committed for a hearing, and the officers are in search of the other offenders.

Villians at Work.—An attempt was made to burn the barn of Mr. Issac Mills, at Braddock's Fields, yesterday morning about one o'clock. The flames fortunately were discovered before they had gained much headway, by a passerby who upon entering the premises, saw a man disappear rapidly in an opposite direction. The family were aroused and the fire put out, when a bottle filled with carbon oil and a bunch of matches were discovered, showing the attempt to be that of an incendiary.

Penn Township.—The registration for Penn Township, has been completed and shows four hundred and seventy registered voters; of these, one hundred and fourteen are naturalized voters, and sixteen vote on age. The name of Ireland boasts of eleven, all Republicans. That of Statler seventeen, all Republicans, that of Morrow eleven, and all Republicans but one. Amongst the list we notice three teachers, one clergyman and one physician. At the Presidential election, Penn gave 301 for Grant, and 82 for Seymour. Total, 383.

Recovering.—The fool who drank a quart of whisky on a bet Wednesday morning is recovering. It appears that the fellow with two companions, all of whom reside in South Pittsburg, were in the city Tuesday evening, and after taking numerous drinks, started for the south side with a bottle of whisky, and when at the south end of the Monongahela suspension bridge the bet was made and the dose taken. Dr. Roberts was called at 6 A. M., about five hours after the occurrence, and found the fellow suffering from congestion of the brain, produced by the over dose of "benzine." He will probably take an ounce of strychnine next time.

The New Market House—Meeting of the Market Committee.

The Market Committee of City Councils held a meeting last evening in the office of Superintendent Kilgore, City Hall. There were present Messrs. Anderson, Caskey, Daub, Littell, Potts, Houston, and McEwen, Chairman. Mr. Anderson, from special sub-committee, appointed to ascertain the cost of a new market building on Fifth avenue, reported a carefully drawn plan prepared by Mr. John B. Geyser, architect, somewhat after the style of the Allegheny Diamond market. Its total length will be 180 feet, by 100 feet wide. The height of the main roof will be thirty feet, and forty-five feet to top of large ventilator in the center, twelve feet wide, crossing the full width of the building. The main roof will be abundantly supplied with skylights and ventilators. The interior of the building will afford four offices or coffee houses, one on each corner, eighty meat stalls, and sixty vegetable stands, besides broad aisles, and a neat fountain place if desired. Exteriorly the building will be the same as the Allegheny Market House. Its cost will approximate $18,000. Mr. McEwen, the chairman, stated that the Allegheny Market House was erected in 1864, when prices for labor and material were much higher than now, at a cost of $29,060.81. It covers an area two hundred feet square and is ornamentally finished.

Provided Councils conclude to purchase the site offered on Fifth avenue and Miltenberger street, it is highly probable that a market company of citizens will offer to erect the building on their own risk, and only asking legal interest on the investment, will wait for a return of the investment when the new place pays for itself. However, it is hardly probable that Councils will permit the erection, except under the immediate and direct auspices of the city. The present market in the Diamond is now yielding a net revenue yearly of $35,000 to the city treasury, and it is thought the new market house will annually yield fully one third that amount from the start.

The committee adjourned after transacting some other business of minor importance.

INTERNATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

The Journeymen Tailors' Convention—Resolutions Adopted—Mass Convention last Evening—Addresses in English and German.

The International Convention of Journeymen Tailors reassembled yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Morstard presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was referred back to the Committees. Three of the resolutions related to the death of Mr. William H. Sylvis, President of the Labor Union, which was deplored as a great loss to the Trades' Unions and the age. The remaining resolutions referred to the progress that has been made by the trade, and promised the support of the International Union to Local Unions, where they strike with good reason for advance of wages or against reduction of wages.

A Committee appointed to inquire into the various important matters before the Convention, reported at length in regard to a refusal of the President to answer certain questions put to him.

Mr. Morstard moved the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary make a quarterly statement to every local Union in regard to membership, funds in the hands of the International Union, and the general aspect of trade. Adopted.

Mr. Killen offered a resolution tending toward the abolition of the Board of Trustees. It was referred back to the local Unions.

Mr. Bissert offered the following:

Resolved, That the Convention regards the statutes which empowers Justices of the Peace to send workmen to prison, with hard labor, for breaking contracts of service, as a grievous injustice and wholly unsuited to the present state of civilization, and will endeavor to procure a repeal of the same by co-operating with other kindred associations and by such other means as may be requisite.

Mr. Houghendobler said this was a question of politics, and was opposed to its introduction before the Convention.

Mr. Walsh said this resolution would show at least that the workingmen desire as much fair play as the capitalists, and, therefore, he was in favor of its adoption by the Convention.

Mr. McCole gave several instances of the oppresive character of the laws which at present govern Massachusetts.

The resolution was passed. The following were then presented:

Resolved, That this Convention recommend and encourage, and, if possible, adopt the principles of co-operation with a view of enabling workingmen to obtain a more equal share of the benefits resulting from their labors.

Resolved, That the Convention fully appreciate the efforts made by the National Labor Congress to unite in common bonds of brotherhood the workingmen of all States, most earnestly recommend to the various local unions here represented the advisability of becoming affiliated to that body, believing that it is essential to the progress and prosperity of the entire working community. Adopted.

Mr. Morstard presented a communication from New York, stating that the strike there was in a measure a success, as several of the clothing manufacturers had consented to pay the prices demanded by the strikers. The Secretary of the Convention was instructed to respond in an appropriate manner.

It was decided to hold the next Convention in Boston.

The Convention then adjourned until nine o'clock this morning.

Pursuant to a public call the delegates and others assembled in mass convention, last evening, at the hall in the building No. 182 Smithfield street. There was a good attendance, and considerable interest was manifested in the proceedings.

Mr. Walter Fairburn, President of the Tailor's International Union, was called on to preside. Mr. Fairburn made a brief speech, in which he recommended the immediate formation of a Tailors' Union in this city. He said he would not make a lengthy speech, but would say to the tailors of this city that as soon as they had formed themselves into a Union they would be taken care of by the International Union. The President closed by introducing to the Convention

Mr. Blisset, of New York, who first addressed the meeting in the English language, after which he delivered an address in the German. In his English address, the speaker urged the importance of the journeymen tailors combining together for mutual protection. He contrasted the condition of the tailors to that of the bricklayers and other mechanics, who have unions, showing that the tailors worked more hours and received lower wages for their labor than any other class of mechanics. By the establishment of unions the wages would be advanced and their hours reduced. As long as the tailors hesitated to take such steps for their own protection they would remain in a state worse than slavery. He closed by urging upon every man present, who would not be tied to a needle and thread for sixteen hours a day to enroll his name for the purpose of establishing a Union in Pittsburgh. The remarks of the speaker were received with great applause.

Mr. Morstad, of New York, next addressed the Convention in German. His speech was attentively listened to, and elicited much applause. He closed by calling upon the journeymen tailors of this city to enroll their names for the establishment of a local Union. Nearly all present responded to the call.

Mr. Blisset delivered a speech in German, after which the Convention adjourned.

The Committee appointed to fix upon a time and place for holding the meeting of the International Union next year, reported that they had selected the second Monday of August, 1870, as the time, and Boston as the place. The report was approved.

Pocket-book Stolen.

Mr. Thaw, of the firm of Clark & Thaw, was robbed of his pocket-book, containing $275 and a number of valuable papers, yesterday, while making some purchases in the store of Weldon & Co., Wood street. Mr. Thaw, after purchasing some articles, took his pocket-book from his pocket for the purpose of paying for the articles, when his attention was called to something on the opposite side of the counter, and for the purpose of examanining it he passed around the counter, leaving his pocket-book lying on the show case. At this instant a stranger came into the store and stated that he wished to purchase a backgammon board, but would call in again, and immediately walked out in a hurried manner. Soon after the stranger left the store Mr. Thaw came round the counter to take up his pocket-book, but discovered that it had been taken. Suspicion, of course, attached to the stranger, as he was the only person who had left the store during the time Mr. Thaw was in. The police were immediately notified of the affair, and a discription of the man given. Mr. Mason, a member of the firm, is confident that he can identify the man if he should see him.
